

Data Recorder

Know your performance

Description

The new MAI@LOG enables the recording of all grouting data relevant for later evidence of grouting operations. Whether grouting rock, masonry or concrete, jet grouting or pile installation, the easy operation and the simple to use software for data transfer to Microsoft Excel makes construction site assurance and billing even easier. This record of the actual work done dovetails perfectly with the demands of BIM for as-built records.

